

In the Circuit Court of the Ninth Judicial Circuit
In and For Orange County, Florida

Brian C. Boone,
Petitioner,

case No.: 2017-DR-016600-0
Division: 31

v.

Sarah K. Boone,
Respondent. /

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL CLARIFICATION AND/OR
REHEARING REGARDING ALIMONY ARREARS STATED IN THE SUPPLEMENTAL FINAL JUDGEMENT

COMES NOW, PRO SE Respondent, Sarah K. Boone, pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.530, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court for judicial clarification and/or rehearing regarding alimony arrears stated in the Supplemental Final Judgement.

In support of this Motion, the Respondent states:

1. On April 7, 2026 this Court entered its Supplemental Final Judgement in this matter after the trial was held on August 25, 2025.
2. In the Supplemental Final Judgement, the Court states alimony was not paid by the Petitioner to the Respondent during the time period of February 2020 (date of Respondent's incarceration) to April 2022 (date of Petitioner's Modification filing).
3. Both parties acknowledged in their closing arguments submitted to the Court there are 26 months of unpaid alimony by the Petitioner.

4. Missed monthly alimony payments were granted by this Court to be enforced in the amount of $1,000.00. (Page 11, Paragraph 44)

5. Based on the aforementioned data, the arrearage amount should equal $26,000.00 ($$1,000.00 \times 26$ months).

6. In the Supplemental Final Judgement, the monthly total reflects only 15 months of arrears are owed, equalling $15,000.00. (Page 10, Paragraph 41)

7. This creates a clear inconsistency within the Judgement, as the number of months found by the Court does not align with the arrearage amount awarded.

8. The discrepancies throughout appear to be the result of mathematical or inadvertent errors which materially affect the proper outcome of this case, and result overall in prejudice to the Respondent.

9. Judicial clarification and/or correction of alimony arrears stated in the Supplemental Final Judgement is necessary to ensure lawful accuracy and final resolution in this matter.

WHEREFORE, Pro Se Respondent, Sarah K. Boone, respectfully requests this Honorable Court to:

A. Grant a rehearing regarding the necessary clarification of alimony arrears to be awarded to the Respondent by the Petitioner as stated in the Supplemental Final Judgement,

B. In the event the Court determines the correct arrearage amount to be awarded is in fact $26,000.00, amend any and all appropriate sections of the Supplemental Final Judgement necessary to accurately reflect the corrected time and dollar amount, including the adjusted total amount to be awarded and paid to the Respondent by the Petitioner, or alternately,

C. Clarify the basis for the proposed $15,000.00 for 15 months as stated,

D. Grant such further relief as this Honorable Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted this 16th day of April, 2026.
