

In the Circuit Court of the Ninth Judicial Circuit,
In and For Orange County, Florida

Brian C. Boone,
Petitioner,

Case No.: 2017-DR-016600-0
Division: 31

v.

Sarah K. Boone,
Respondent. /

RESPONDENT'S AMENDED MOTION FOR JUDICIAL
CLARIFICATION AND/OR REHEARING REGARDING
ALIMONY ARREARS, CORRECTION OF PAYMENT
INFORMATION, AND TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION
STATED IN THE SUPPLEMENTAL FINAL JUDGEMENT

COMES NOW, Pro Se Respondent, Sarah K. Boone,
pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.530,
and respectfully files this Amended Motion for Judicial Clarification and/or Rehearing Regarding
Alimony Arrears, Correction of Payment Information, and Telephone Communication stated in the supplemental Final Judgement.

In support of this Amended Motion, Respondent states:

1. On April 7, 2026, this Court entered its Supplemental Final Judgement in this matter after final hearing on August 25, 2025.
2. On April 22, 2026, Respondent timely filed her Motion for Clarification and/or Rehearing regarding inconsistencies in the Court's findings concerning alimony arrears (26 months).

3. Respondent hereby amends and supplements her previously filed Motion to include additional issues arising from the Court's Order regarding corrected payment/deposit information and telephone communication between Respondent and the minor child.

4. In the Supplemental Final Judgement (Page 15, Section E, vii), the Court orders, "All alimony payments/deposits shall be made by cashier's check, money order, or certified bank draft made payable to Correct Pay and mailed with a deposit slip by the due date above to FDC Inmate Deposits, PO Box 25900, Bradenton, FL 34206-5900."

5. The information above is incorrect and requires correction to ensure Respondent properly receives the court-ordered payments in a timely manner.

6. The correct payment information for money orders, cashier's checks, certified bank drafts needs to be made payable to:

Sarah Boone, DC # 472509

7. The correct mailing address is:

Florida DOC
Inmate Trust Fund
Centerville Station
PO Box 12100
Tallahassee, FL 32317

8. Respondent requests also whether Petitioner may satisfy the court-ordered payments electronically through the approved online system which provides expedited access to funds and proof of payment at:

www.correctpay.com/Florida

9. In the Supplemental Final Judgement (Page 15, Section E, vi, a.) it states, "Within 90 days of Petitioner being identified on Sarah K. Boone's automated visiting record with a current "approved" status pursuant to Rule 33-601.716 FAC, Petitioner shall make payment #1 in the amount of $600.00."

10. Petitioner has been an approved visitor since September 17, 2025 (see Exhibit 1). Respondent requests clarification as to whether the 90 day period begins from the entry of the Supplemental Final Judgement or upon approval of becoming a visitor as stated, and the correct dollar amount for "payment #1" pending her original Motion.

11. In the Supplemental Final Judgement (Page 13, Section D, i), it states, "Beginning May 1, 2026, Mother shall be entitled to one (1) telephone call per week with the minor child..."

12. The Court does not specify which party is responsible for the financial costs associated with the weekly call or any holidays referenced within the Order.

13. Further, the Order does not address whether additional telephone calls may occur if Respondent is willing and able to pay all associated costs for such communication.

RESPONDENT'S AMENDED MOTION FOR JUDICIAL
CLARIFICATION AND/OR REHEARING REGARDING
ALIMONY ARREARS, CORRECTION OF PAYMENT
INFORMATION, AND TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION
STATED IN THE SUPPLEMENTAL FINAL JUDGEMENT

COMES NOW, Pro Se Respondent, Sarah K. Boone,
pursuant to Florida Rule of Civil Procedure 1.530,
and respectfully files this Amended Motion for Judicial Clarification and/or Rehearing Regarding Alimony Arrears, Correction of Payment Information,
and Telephone Communication stated in the Supplemental Final Judgement.

In support of this Amended Motion, Respondent states:

1. On April 7, 2026, this Court entered its Supplemental Final Judgement in this matter after final hearing on August 25, 2025.
2. On April 22, 2026, Respondent timely filed her Motion for Clarification and/or Rehearing regarding inconsistencies in the Court's findings concerning alimony arrears (26 months).

14. Therefore, necessary clarification is needed for determination of:

A. Whether the Petitioner is responsible for accepting the weekly and holiday calls at no expense to the Respondent;

B. Whether additional telephone calls may occur upon agreement of the parties and/or at Respondent's expense.

15. For both parties to properly comply with the Court's Order, judicial clarification is necessary to avoid future disputes regarding payment obligations and the Respondent's ability to maintain consistent communication with her minor child.

16. Respondent maintains and reasserts all arguments and requests for relief contained within the original Motion for Clarification and/or Rehearing filed on April 22, 2026, including the pending issues relating to alimony arrears.

WHEREFORE, Pro Se Respondent, Sarah K. Boone, respectfully requests this Honorable Court to:

a. Grant a rehearing and/or provide clarification regarding the discrepancies in alimony arrears identified in the original Motion;

b. Enter on Court record the correct payable to and mailing address for alimony payments to be made by Petitioner to the Respondent;

c. Grant the online payment option for Petitioner to make expedited payments as an alternative to mailing;

- d. Confirm Petitioner is an approved visitor, clarify when first installment payment is due, and the correct amount to be paid after Respondent's pending Motion is addressed;
- e. Clarify which party is responsible for cost(s) associated with the one (1) weekly call and holiday calls listed as ordered by the Court;
- f. Clarify whether Respondent is permitted to have reasonable, additional telephone communication with her minor child if bears the associated costs;
- g. Amend the Supplemental Final Judgment as necessary to reflect all Court clarifications and findings;
- h. Grant such further relief as this Honorable Court deems just and proper.

Respectfully submitted this 20th day of May, 2026.
